Biographical Notes for Brother G. E.

Jones: George Elliott Jones was born in Morrilton, Arkansas, on July 12, 1889, a son of Dr. W. A. Jones and Etta Adams Jones. He departed this life on January 31, 1966, at age 76. In 1905 George Elliott Jones was the first graduate from the Plumerville High School, being the only one in his class. He was saved at age 17 during a revival meeting in the Baptist Church in Plumerville. Brother Jones responded to God's call to the ministry. His first sermon was on the 2nd Sunday in May, 1912, at the Immanuel Baptist Church in Little Rock, Arkansas. His subject was the Second Coming of Christ, using Acts 1:11 as his text. He preached 20 minutes. His last message was dictated from his hospital bed on January 30, 1966, the day before his death, on a kindred subject, Jesus and The Millennium. He had preached 53 years, 8 months. He was a Pre-millennialist all the way. Brother Jones conducted a Bible School for preachers at the Bethany Missionary Baptist Church in Jonesboro, Arkansas, in the early 1950s.
