Richard Lawrence Showing the Protestant Persecutions of the Anabaptists

There are four main historical writings that came from the First London Confession of Faith brethren.

- Richard Lawrence, brother of President Henry Lawrence who also wrote several works against the Seekers, Quakers and Open Communion type of Baptists, who wrote several works. The following is from one of Richard's works. In the near future we hope to have all of Richard's works in MS Word and up on our site. Elder John O'Brien does this for us.
- 2) Richard Deane wrote an earlier works covering the history of the Particular Baptists who later issued the First London Confession of Faith. His work was published near the close of the 1600s, but it was written much earlier and sent out as an unpublished MS.

A COPY of a

Brief Treatise

OF

The Proper Subject and Administration of Baptism.

Some Years since sent by the Author to Thomas late Lord Bishop of Lincoln.

With a Prefatory Epistle thereunto, And the Scriptures cited at large.

Capt. Richard Deane

LONDON

Printed for the Author; And are to Be sold by Thomas Fabian, at the Bible In Cheapside near Breadstreet, 1693.

3) William Kiffin's work called The Kiffin Manuscript also contains many important historical writings about the Particular Baptists and some of their origins during the 1640-41 era known as the Richard Blount efforts. I discuss all this in my work Studies on the Kiffin Ms. This old work was preserved as an official part of the Church that William Kiffin gathered in 1638. This old church at one time was a part of the Church John Spilsbury gathered in 1633. They separated because they grew too large and by such large meetings they would bring persecution upon themselves.

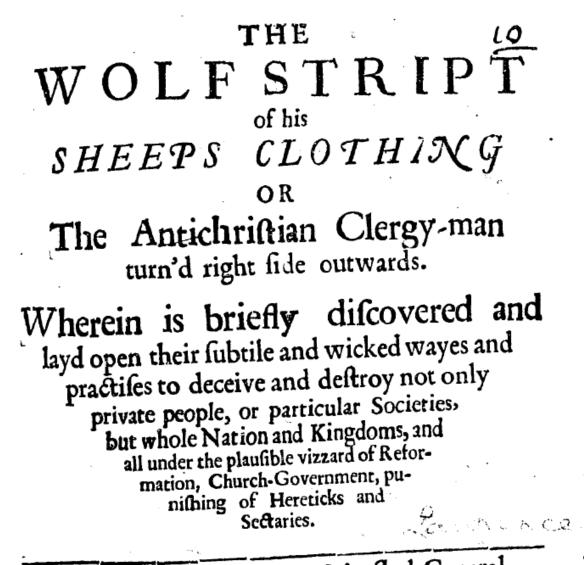

4) Henry' Danvers' historical writings are full of tracing the succession of the Baptized Churches of Jesus Christ in England and Wales mostly. There are several volumes in the writings of D'Anvers because the Pedobaptists in England hated him and his works, and had him banished into Holland in the late 1670s where he died. Some Pedobaptist leaders in London claimed that D'Anvers falsified historical evidences and wanted the Baptists to disown him. The Baptist brethren, all of them Particular Baptists, met together for a public view of all these charges and completely vindicated D'Anvers. The Particular Baptists did not work with the General Baptists at that time. Since D'Anvers had become a Particular Baptist, the Particular Baptists tried him and validated him and his works. We have this trial also in our holdings and up on our site. D'Anvers' historical works give us a very good and accurate account of Particular Baptist succession through the Predestination Anabaptists and Mennonites. He shows that many of them were true and proper Trinitarians (anti-Nicenist Trinitarians as they would be called later). Brother John O'Brien placed all these works in MS Word and they are up on our site.

As we study the original writers and their writings of the First London Confession era we find their continual position that they were the descendents of the old Anabaptists. They did not turn away from claiming their true succession through the old Waldenses and Albigenses. See our works The French Connection and D'Anvers on The French Connection. Please remember that the 1646 edition of the First London Confession contained the signing of a "French Church of the same faith". They rejected the so-called Mad Men of Muster but they did not reject the Anabaptists as a whole.

No Whitsittism

None of the brethren in the 1640s and 50s had any idea that Immersion had been lost in England and no one practiced it to professed believers until 1641. During the life and times of the older brethren, they understood that the true church of Christ Jesus had always, since the beginning of the apostasy with the introduction of infant baptism and the union of church and state, been persecuted by the forces of antichrist. They identified the forces of Antichrist to be those of the State Churches, or national Churches built upon the Old Covenant and Infant Baptism in the place of circumcision. Richard Lawrence is plain and clear on this.

Special word of thanks to Brother Chris for supplying this old work in the place of my older and burned one. This old work as we now have it is one of the copyrighted works from Old English Books on Line and we cannot share it fully. I merely quote from it in review now and hope to all it and several others before too much longer from The Wing Collection that are not under copyright.

By R. LAVVRANCE Maishal General.

JEREMIAH 23. 16.

Thus faith the Lord of hostes, hearken not unto the words of the Prophets that prophely unto you: They make you vain, they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord.

LONDON, may ve ? Printed in the year 1647.

то

The cruel, wicked, Antichriftian, blood-thirfty Clergy, by what name or title foever dignified or diffinguished.

SIRS.

S ye are men, or at ye are learned men, I have no prejudice against you; but if that were the world fault ye had, I could both love and bonour you, the ene bearing the image of God, and the other being the cheif natural excellency of that image, but at you do exalt your humane natural excellencies, and fet them up above and acies, and fet them up above and againft the divine and fpiritual excellencies of Jefus Chrift : And have brought in all your humane learning and wifdom. And have brought in all your humane learning and wifdom. fo varnifie and coloured over into the Church of God, that fo varnifie and coloured over into the Church of God, that for varnifie and coloured over into the Church of God, that get is world hath taken it for fpiritual; and thereby have deceived and deluded millions of poor fouls for this many deceived and deluded millions of poor fouls for this many aget : Who thought, when they had attained to read and aget : Who thought, When they had attained to read and for their Catechifm, Greed, and the Lords-prayer by heart, for their Catechifm, Greed, and the Lords-prayer by heart, for their Parfows were able to teach them to fo that all they their Parfows were able to teach them to fo that all they have branned from you hath been only the hiftory of Chrift : and

The Epiftle.

and koth you and they have been altogether ignorant of the mystery of Christ; which hath been hid from ages and generations; which the widdom and learning of this world, in you, have alwayes bien at enmity against; So with that faith which gives life they lived and dyed ignorant of, and so perist in their fins; whose blood will be required at your hand, which led them on in their synorance, and told them they were Christians, and had faith, when there was no such matter.

And as you have thus been and fill are the profest exemies of Jesus Christ in his people, the great dark black cloud which hath thadowed shofe glorioits spiritual spinings of that sun of righteousness in the Gospel moon the world; which have not only been at enmity against it in your selves, but have not only been at enmity against it in your selves, but have indeauoured with all your Antichristian power to suppressed in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimeings of it in others, under the name of Heresse and Schimether that are entering to go in.

So thui confidering of you at the great fubril wicked crue l adverfary to the plotions spiritual power of plats Christian his people; therein 1 must declare to you I am your profet enemy; and shal say unto you, as the Prophet said in the same case, Shal I not hate them which hate the Lord; and am I not grieved with them that rife up against thee? yes, I hate them which a perfect hatred, I count them mine enemics, Platm 139, 22.

And let me tell you what all your trade is, almost at the best; your work is almost at an end: you may continue some years, but not many ages: For if Antichrist be once down in the world, whose destruction draweth nigh, you wil not be up: If once Antichrist be thrown out of the Church with all his humane traditions; I am sure you must not be in it. And truly truly but time is very fort; be is breathing his laft gafp : the formy night of afflictions is almost past with the Church ; the flo wers begin to appear on the earth, the time of the finging of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land : Though you, like bloody wretches, are telling the powers of the world, that these turtles are birds of prey 3 to the end they might fet you awork to foot at them and de. froy them : but let me tell you, the hairs of their head are all numbred, they are of more value then many fparrows : Ton may foot your bolts at them but ye fal not burt one of them further then their heavenly Father Ball fee it good for them. Te may do, as your bloody predecefors did, in the Marian dayes, overcome and destroy the bodies of some thousands of them : for the devil, baving but a thort time, will have great wrath : but they have an eternal spirit in them, you But never overcome : they have learned not to fear them which can but kill the body, and then can do no more a nay, you shal destroy your selves instead of destroying them : The little ftone cut out of the mountain without hand, cannot be broken in peeces with your bands : Chrift, in his people, hal only be aftone of flumbling to you, and a rock of offence ; till you have filled up the measure of your iniquity ; and then the ftone, which you Suilders have refuled, fhall become the head of the corner : Then shal you fee and be asbamed of all she ungodly deeds which you have ungodlily committed against the poor Saints of God. And let me self you they can fuffer with more rejoycing then you can perfecute : and this fhall be the increase of your present torment, to see that all you can do against them will be but like pitch thrown on the fire; it will make them shine the brighten;

The Epiftle.

and your felves the more odious. Many a precious (pirit. which fits filent in the dark corners of this Kingdom, when once firred up by your journey-menperfectors which begin already in many parts of this Kingperfectors which begin already in many parts of this Kingdom to danse after your pipes, will then hold forth the glory dom to danse after your pipes, will then hold forth the glory of God by witneffing a good confession, They will then tell of God by witneffing a good confession.

of the loving kindnefs of the Lord , in the land of the living; that the dead may hear the voice of the fonne of God and live. They will then come to know what it was that made Paul and Silas fing in prifon: that made Stephen when he was a ftoning fay, he faw the heaven open and the Son of man standing at the right hand of God: That made Paul fay he may not only ready to be bound but to dye at Jerufalem: that the fufferings of this life is not worthy to be compared to the glory that shal be revealed: that he defired to be diffolved, and to be with Christ. Thefe breathings have been but flow and cold in the Saints of God for many years, especially these five or fix last years, fince their perfecutors have had no leasure to look after them.

Perfecators are as usefall to the Saints as the rod is for the child : but as there is a time for the father to correct the child; fo there is a time when he will burn the rod too : 1 Jay no more, but as ye are men, whom Chrift bath ford his blood for, and thereby bash opened a way for merey for all that come to God by him ; but that the Lord would be plear fed to open your eyes and let you fee the evill of your doings: that ye may no longer go on to dece we and deftroy the/e whom Chrift hath payd to great a price for : that they may be no more fo bateful in your eye, which are to precions in the fight of God : that ye may not bereafter be fo cruel to those whom God is at tender over as the apple of his own eye : that ye may not be fo forward to destroy and spill the blood of those whom the Lord Iefne Christ was to forward to give his own blood to fave : and that the Lord would give you hearts to confess to the world bow they have been deceived and deluded by you : tell them you are not the men they have fo long taken you for : that you are, and ever were, as subisti to erre a other men : and that the more of your humane learning you have had or made ale of, the more you have been subject to erre and be mifled : If they will not beleeve you, wife them to confider what is become of the confultations and refults of all your learned Connfel and boly Synods that over fat to the beginning beginnning of this Parliament : and Whether the most purest of them all were not determined Antichriftian by the most pieus and learned Affembly that ever fate? And tell them again that thefe are but men subject to the same infirmities the former were, and then counsel them to have their thew obts pitcht upon semething above Counsels and Synods for their spitch teachings and building up in the faith of the Gospel. And thus doing ye shall do but your duty: So de-firing your acceptance, I reft, as much your profest enemy as you are Iefus Christ's, and no more.

.

The Epiftle.

R, L,

been made perfect through fufferings, Heb.2.10. Whereby ha hath given all that are his, fufficient tellimony, that if they will follow their Lord Christ, they must take up his crosse, Luk. 19 23. and All that will live godly in fefms Chrift Ball Inffer perfern-tion, 2 Tim. 3.12. that In the world they Ball have tribulation, but in him they fall have peace. For (faith Chrift) the difeiple is not above his Master, nor the fervant above his Lord; it is enough for the disciple to be as his Master, and the servant as his Lord. If they have called the Master of the house Beelzebub; how much more fall they call them of his boufbold ? Matthe 10. 24, 25. I fay, fince this chafte fpouse of Jetus Chrift the /pirituall Church of God hath been left in the world, as the Ark of God was among the Philiftims, as Daniel in the lions den, or as fonas in the whales belly, void of all hope and help in the world, as far as fenfe and reafon, or any thing below faith was able to apprehend, the flesh, the world, and the Divel hath ever fince proclaimed open war against Chrift in his people, though the gates of hell could never yet, nor ever thall prevail against them, Matth. 16.18. For no fooner had they done crucifying Chrift, but prefently they began to perfecute the Apoftles and Saints at Jerufalem : And they were all feattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the Apostles, Acts 8. 1. and they which were scattered abroad Went everywhere preaching the word : and the Apoltles did not go about to ftir up Jerufalem to petition the Magiftrate againft them then : but what was then the duty and practice of the Saints, is now punishable by our learned Presbyters for Schifm and Herefie; and becaufe they have neither precept nor practice, neither Scripture nor good reafon to convince their differing Brethren, therefore are they procuring lawes. and ordinances, that then they may cry out to the Magiltrate as the Jewes did to Pilate, Wie have a law, and by our law bee

Those who are the drivers of this defigne, let us pray that the Lord would not lay this fin to their charge ; but that hee would open their eyer, and let them fee the evill of their doings, that they may put it far from them ; and take this into their

their confideration, that England hath too much innocent blood upon its fcore already, which hath coft it very deer lately. God hath given our Nation blood to drink in great meafure, as if he would tell us every drop of the blood of his faints which this Kingdome for many yeers hath been deftroying and banifhing, fhould coft us a fountain ; and hath fo difperst and fcattered all our former perfections, as if hee were minded to let them fee how good perfection and banihment were; or to make them as forward to fetch those home again whom they have formerly banifh; and forc'd out of the Kingdom, as he did the Egyptians, to thruft the Ifraclites out, whom they did formerly force to Itay in their Kingdom. 1 thall here onely ufe Davids words in the very fame cafe, In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my foul. Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. But the Lord is my defence, and my God is the rock of my refuge : And he Ball bring upon them their own iniquity, and Ball cut them off in their own wickedneffe; yea, the Lord our God Ball cut them off, Pial:94.19,20,&cc.

It hath been the fad condition of the Church of God for above a thoufand yeers laft paft, ever fince the falling away fpoken of 2 Theff. 2.3. to fuffer by her enemies as an evill doer ; truth hath ever fince been perfecuted for errour, light for darkneffe, Christ for Belial : and therefore this last hath been the most cunning and cruellest way of perfecuting that ever the adverfary attained to ; therefore faith Chrift, prophefying of this last and greatest adversary to the Church, Beware of falls prophets which come to you in fleeps clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. So, Behold, I fend you forth as sheep among wolves; be ye ther fore wife as ferpents, and harmleffe as dover. As much as if he fhould fay, ye have a fubile and cruell advertary to deal withall, therefore arm your felves with wifdom and innocency. Or thus, Ye have been formerly perfecuted by open enemies, fuch as have not been alhamed to appear against you in their own likenesse; but now your cnemy enemy fhall be your pretented friend, fuch as thall be in your e wn likeneffe : they will be wolves ftill, but they will be in sbeeps clothing, Matth 7.15. They will fill kill you, but they will pretend to do God good fervice by is, John 16.2. Chrift further prophefieth of the Saints fufferings under the Gofpel by this wicked cruel devouring adverfary, Mark 13.19. For in those days shall be afflictions, such as were not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither Shall be: And then if any man shall fay, Lo te e is Christ, or lo there is Christ, beleeve him not: for falle Christs and falle prophets shall arile, and shall shew signes and wonders, to deceive, if it were possible, even the very cleft. And if ye will beleeve the Setipture, those falle Christs and great deceivers spoken of so much, are not such kinde of creatures as wee are, crying out against poor illiterate mechanick fellows, as we call them; for fuch were Chrift and the Apofiles deemed of by the world; Is not this the Carpenters fon ? Matt. 13.55. Mar. 6.5. So in Aftr 4. when the Apoftles Peter and John were brought before the high prieft and his kindred to be examined : When they faw the boldn: ffe of Peter and John, and perceived they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with fefus. These priefts had more goodneffe in them then many of our priefts; for they will not take notice of any whom they call unlearned and ignorant men, to have been with 7-145, if they have any Chriftian boldneffe in them ; but call it audacioufneffe, and out facing Authority, meaning their own Antichriftian power : as if there were no coming to fin but by Rome, the fame way by which them felves come. But those falle Christs and falle Apolles spoken of in Scripture are not unlearned mechanick fellowes; but fuch as have in them all the humane learning and wildome the world can afford : not fuch men as are forc'd to run up and do wn the Country, fculking here and there in private places to broach their opinions to fome poor defpiled people ; for there is no politibility that thele men, if deceivers, fhould be perfecuters too. But thefe decrivers have in their hands all the power the earth can afford.

•••

(6)

(7) ford, to ftir up Nation against Nation, and Kingdom against Kingdome, to bring before and deliver up to Counsels, to bear you in their Synagogues, to hale you before Kings and Rulers, Matth. 10. 17, 18. Mark 13.8,9. These deceivers are of that man of fin, that fon of perdition fpoken of 2 Theff. 2. 3. Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; fo that he as God sittesh in the temple of God, so wing himsfelf that he is God, ver. 4. These deceivers are they whose coming is like the working of Satan, with all power, and fignes, and lying wonders, and with all deceivablen for of unrighteonsnesse.

Now those deceivers which the Church of God hith been troubled withall for these many ages are such kinde of deceivers as thefe are, men of great places and high effeem in the world, having had all the power of the woild to back then, which never were able to carry on their busineffe with any ftrength of argument, the Scripture hath been fo point blank against them, and therefore they have made use of the power and ftrength of Emperors and Kings ; and where the Magisterial power hath faild them, they have made use of the Military, and have ftirred up Emperors and Kings to war one with another, and by this means these bloody deceivers have been the caufe of thousands of millions of Christiand lives to be loft, and their blood to be fpilt to maintain their Antichristian power and domination over the whole Chriftian world. And all this hath been done under the pious pretences of Reformation, Church or der, ipunishing of Hereticks, &c. pretending zeale to Gods glory and the Churches good inthe most bloody enterprises that ever they undertook.

They have alwayes pretended to reform the Church of its Herefie and Schifnie, &c. and on the contrary, have deformed it into formality, fuperstition, and idolatry : And when their wicked practices and falle worthips have begun to appear to visible to the eye of the world, that the very light of nature hath been alhamed of their abominations ; then for fear that the myltery of iniquity fhould fully difeover it felf to their utter ruine, they have again transformed themfelves into into fome other likenels or thape, thereby to deceive the world, and make them beleeve they were a reforming themfelves and the Church, out of their zeal to Gods glory, when they alwayes flaid in their old Idols Temple, while it were ready to fall on their heads, and then built themfelves another of the fame materials, onely painted over with fome other colours : And this ye fhall finde to be the center of all Synodical Reformations to this very day ; never countenancing nor fuffering more of the power of godlinels in any, where they could supprefs it, then what would serve them for a stalking horfe, to deftroy their diffenting Brethren by. And as they have fought the exaltation of their own glory, the establishment of their own power, and the manifeltation of their own humane wildom and learning in all their undertakings, and have delpifed, the wildom, power, and glory of God in his people, becaufe God hath bid that treasure in earthen veffels. 2 Cor. 4. 7. because it is the good pleasure of the Father to kide those things from the wife, and prudent, and reveal them unto babes, Matth. 11. 25. becaufe not many wife, not many mighty, not many noble are called , but God hath shofen the foolifb things of the world, to confound the wife, I Cor. I. 27. Therefore hath God likewife refused them, and hath given them up to the pride, and deceit of their own heart : Therefore hath God pronounced a wo against them, Ifaiab 30.1. Wo to the rebellious children, that take counfel, but not of me, that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit : So in the 29. of Isiah13. Wherefore the Lord faid, Forafmuch as this people draw neer me with their month, and with their lips do honor me, but bave removed their heart far from me, and their fear towards me is taught by the precepts of men : Therefore, behold, I will proceed to de a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder : the wildom of their wife men shall perifb, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be bid. Is not the fin and punifhment of the Prince of Tyre met in our days ? Ezekiel 28. Is it not vifibly difcovered to us, that our learned Wife men, fuch as have endeavoured to confine all the true knowledge of God, and the mysteries of his Kingdom to their

(8)

their learned capacities have ever been our deceivers, and feducers : Such as have been our leaders into all manner of Superfitition and Idolatry ; may we not well fay with the Apofile, Where is the wife, where is the feribe, where is the difpatter of this world? bath not God made feelift the wifdem of this world? I Cor. I. 20. Doth it not appear, That Chrift is made by God alone mate us wifdom ? I Cor. I. 30. Have not the which have called themfelves the Reverend Clergy, the Learned Tribe of Levi, the Bilhops, Paftors, and Ministers of Chrifts Church, been for above a thoufand yeers, to the begining of this Parliament, the great deceivers, the grand Sectaries, the chief fowers of Sedition, the very Throne and Body of Antichrift, and the proudeft enemies to the Church of God?

Let us leave England a little, and observe the greatest pare of the World, called Chriftendom, as Italy, Spain, France, Germany, c.c. and do they not at this very day, generally live in the very darkness of Popery, making it their very Religion to maintain the Popes fupremacy, the authority of the Church, and a few idolatrous Superfititions Ceremonies; and are other-wayes altogether as ignorant of the knowledge of Jefus Chrift, as the very Heathens ? And who are the Leaders of these people in their ignorant superstition, and idolatry ? Is it not the Clergy, the Learned, the University men? Is it not they which are their Popes, Cardinals, Jefuites, Fryers, Monks, or ? Is it not they which hath broacht, and imposed all those damnable Herefics, and Errors, now in the Church of Rome ? And have they not to fill up the measure of their iniquities, caufed to be prefented, and put to death many thoulands of Christians, for not beleeving, and receiving their damnable Superflitious Errors? Nay further , hath it not been they which throughout all Christendom for thefe many ages, have been the chief and onely contrivers, and ploters of all the bloody barbarous plots, wicked infurrections, and traiterous rebellions, against Kings and Kingdoms? Hath it not been their conftant practile to ftir up Nation sgainst Nation, and Kingdom against Kingdom, under pretence C e. 2

×.

tence of Holy War, to the deltroying and ruinating many thousands of good Christians : the whole Histories of Chriftendom being but a brief ftory of the bloody wicked barbarous practifes of these blood-thirfty Clergy-men; there would be no end if I should come to particulars, whole Volumns not containing them. But thou mayeft object an i iay, We know the Romith-Clergy are bloody deceivers, quel perfecuters of good Chriftians : We have heard often of the Spanish Inquisition, and the bloody massacre in France, &c. But what is this to us? we have had a Learned, Pious Clergy in England for many yeers. Let me intreat thee to confider a little, what pious men they have been ; where fhall we begin ? in Henry the eights time, or in Queen Maries dayes? For till those dayes they were all as Romish as the other are now. Let me intreat thee to perule well the Chronicles of England, Scotland, and Ireland, Mafter Fox his Books of the Acts and Monuments of the Church, his Hiltory of Martyrs; and when thou haft done, then tell me, whether the Clergy of England hath not been more wicked, bloody, and cruel, then all the Clergy of Christendom befides : How many thousands of precious Chriftians have had their blood fpilt, and been put to cruel torments, fuch as ye hardly read of in any other ftory by our cruel bloody English Clergy men? And this is chiefly obfervable in them, wherein they have exceeded all others, That they have not onely been as Popilh, superfitious, and cruel, as others in other Kingdoms, when the ftream hath ran that way; but that they were never true to their own principles, wherein they have been alwayes a fhame to their cloth; for as their Popifh Superflition and Idolatry, hath declared them to be not Chriftians , but Ant chriftians : fo their turning like the weather-cock, with all windes, hath declared them unworthy cowardly people, as they are meet natural men. Thus ye shall finde them in Henry the eights dayes, when the Kingdom was under the height of Popery, they were all cruel Papifts ; when the King denied the Popes fupremacy, and went about to demolifh the Abbeys, and Monasteries, which they all knew was not out of any pions zcal real he had for Reformation, but out of wrath, pride, and covetcoufnefs; yet how did they all fide with him, except the Cerdinal, and the poor Fryers, and Monks, that were all undone, and beggered by it? Then in the dayes of Edward the fixt, by reafon of the Kings pious difpoli ion, though young, they feared a turn, and prefently a great part of them fell a Preaching against some particular points of Popery; and fuch as defended them, did as if they had not greatly cared what Religion they were on : but in the mean time, the Lord Protector, with feveral others, were refolved to reform the Church ; and prefently abolifhed the Mais with molt of the Popifh Service, and caufed the Common-Prayer Book to be read in English to the people; and prefently all the Clergy were zealous Protestants, great Common-Prayer Book men, except fome four or five of their chief Bilnops, as Gardiner, Bonner, Touftal, and Day; and about three or four yeers after, at the moft, when Queen Mary was made Queen of England, they prefently all turned about again, except fuch another number, as Cranmer, Rogers, Hooper, Ferrer, Ridley, and Latimer, and grew more crucl throughout the whole Kingdom against the poor Saints then ever they were ; Bonner being then Bilhop of London , did drive the very fame trade Malter Edwards is about now ; for if ye observe it, the first officer Antichrift entertains when he is begining a new defigne, is a good Scout-mafter General, to keep a correspondency with all the reft of the wicked Clergy (pred abroad over the Kingdom, as ye may fee by those many wicked Letters, and accufations, which daily he received from all parts of the Kingdom, against one poor man or other ; fo that friends durst not talk together for fear fome words fhould flip, and Bonner fhould come to hear of it, which was the bloodieft minded man that is upon record, for perfecuting the poor Saints, and inventing punifhment for them , or I hope we ever fhall hear of, if God keep but Mafter Edwards and his ungrateful bloody faction out of authority : And in this rage did those wolves continue devouring the poor fheep of Chrift all the dayes of Queen Mary ; and how many thousands of good Christians were deftroyed and banifhed by them, would make a Jews

÷...

a Jews heart bleed to confider off ; and all those fuffered by them as evil doers, as Heretikes and Schifmatikes ; and themfelves then, as they do now, affumed the name of Chrifts Minilters, and Ambaffadors : Then after Queen Mary was dead, and Queen Elizabeth f wayed the Scepter, in fix moneths the whole tribe of them , except fome few of their Bifhops which had gotten money enough to live upon any where, and fo did not care much for their trade, turned quite about again, and all turned Protestants: in which shape, and under which vilage, they have continued to the beginning of this Parliament ; who then prefently difcovered to the whole Kingdom, that they had been as deceitful, and as cruel in this fhape, as ever they had been in the former ; that they had onely got on fheeps clothing, but were all inwardly ravening wolves : they had got a trick to call all their Antichriftian practifes, and Popifh ceremonies, the Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England; and all their Antichriftian proud Prelates, with the reft of their superstitious dumb Priefts, mult be called the Bishops Stewards, and Ministers of Jefus Chrift; and all the true worthippers of God in the Kingdom, they were all feattered abroad, filenced, and perfecuted under the name of Hererikes, and Schifmatikes, er. Every day growing worfe then other, bringing in fome new invented Popifh ceremony or other, to the end they might have further advantage against fuch as could not fubmit to them : fure it will be needless for me to give you any particulars of their infolent proud wicked carriage in our times; it must needs be fresh in your memory ; their incroachments upon the Givil power; their oppreffions by their wicked Courts in all parts of this Kingdom ; their fuperflition and idolatry, which they were every day inventing and bringing into the Church ; their infolency and pride in fetting themfelves up with, if not above the Nobility of the Kingdom; their wicked and damnable plots, tending to the ruine of both Church and State ; doth not all the blood, both of England, and Ireland ftand upon the ftone of thefe bloody men? have not they been the great fomenters of this bloody war amonga 4 aw: . .

-

(13)

amongh us, by ftirring up the fpirits of wicked cruel men, against the poor Saints of God, in the three Kingdoms ; and was there ever any wicked plot discovered, either against Church or State, but these men have had a great hand in it, if not the chief contrivers of it ? If a Deputy of Ireland be in fault, ye may be fure of an Archbishop of Canterbury : How did they flock to the Kings party at the beginning of this war, that in fome Garrifons, as Oxford, Newark, York, and feveral others, there were whole Troops and Companies of blackcoats? and where ever the greateft flocks of thefe learned Deceivers were refident, there were the people most difaffected to the Parliament ; as witness the Universities and Cathedrals, which appeared to be the very nefts and cages of unclean birds : If the Parliament fhould have forborne to have given them the tenth of the Kingdom, till such time as the tenth of the Clergy had been of their fides, the Ordinance for Tithes might yet have been unpaft. If I fhould go on to particulars, of their Malignant speeches and actions, which they have fpoken, and done against the Parliament, and their proceedings fince this war begun, you would not have the patience to read them ; of their villifying the Parliament and all that adhered to them , under the names of Rebels and Traytors ; frequently charging them of facriledge and robbing the Church of her ancient Rites and Ceremonies; extolling the Book of Common-prayer, calling it the Divine Service of God, thereby to render the Parliament odious for taking away fuch holy things; with abundance more of this nature ; fo that all thefe things well confidered and laid together, I wonder who will appear the great Sectaries, the grand Heretikes, the factious Fellows, the fowers of Sedition, and deltroyers of Religion in the Kingdom? whether the Laity or the Clergy? and who we have now molt caufe to land in fear of ? whether those which are now discovering the superflitious blindness, and wicked practiles of the Clergy, or the Clergy themfelves ? which are driving on their old de fignes in a new fhape, that are building a new Babel out of the old rubbilh, that are giving that great skarlet whore, a new C 3. h. . .

new drefs, thereby to make the world once more wonder after her, that they may once more hear that voice, Great is Diana of the Epbefiant; but let me perfwade thee not to fear them, neither it is enough for their fervants, their vaffals, fuch as ftand and fall with them, to live in fear of them : But if thou be ft one of the le which follow the Lamb, wherefoever he goeib, Rev. 14 4. that art willing to carry the crofs of Chrift, as well as wear his Crown, that art willing to fuff 1 with him, as well as raign in the day of their great calamity, W how they shall drink the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the sup of his Indignation, and fhall be tormented with fire and brimftone, in the prefence of the boly angels, and of the Lamb, Revel. 14. 10. Then Balt thou fand with the Lamb upon mount Sion, verle the first. Then thalt thou finged new fong before the throne, Vetle 7. Then thall you fing Aleluia, falvation, bonor, and power, unto the Lord our God; for true and rightcous are his judgements, for be bath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his fervants at her hand, Revel. 19. 1, 2. Therefore be not now at all troubled, when thou feelt the day begin to grow dark ; it is but a cloud that is arifing, it will be no more night with the Church ; if they have a dark hour, the fun will thine through the cloud ; For lo, the winter is paft, the rain is over-gone, the flowers begin to appear on the earth, Cant. 2. 11. It is now fpring-time with the Church, and though there may be many a cold blaft, and ftormy fhowre, yet they are rather to be defired then feared. They will canfe the fig-tree to put forth ber green figs, and the wine with the tender grape to give a good fmell, Cant. 2. 13. What though Truth be yet called Error, and Light darknefs, the Saints and faithful fervants of God, Schifmatikes, and Heretikes? Or. let not this trouble thee; it is no new thing that hath befaln thee, they never were called by other names yet by this generation of men, called Clergy ; and Paul was not alhamed to confels to Felix, that after the way they call Herefie, he worthiped the God of his Fathers; and if thou bell alhamed to confels that now, thou mayelt come to be afhamed of Chrift, and and Truth, and fo deny both; Therefore do not thou minde fo much what men cry up tor truth, and tread down for error; for all is not error that is voted fo: It hath been the lot of truth in molt counfels, if not in all; to have the feweft voices; and thou mayeft be fure, they themfelves that put truth upon vote, are not themfelves fatisfied what truth is, till they have done voting : But if they were the fons of truth, or had any love to, or high efteem of truth; if they had ever tafted of that word of truth and rightcoufne/s; it they had ever received the truth in the love of it, it would be more precisus to them, then to be ventured at one ftake :

(r5)

into fome ther likenefs or thape, thereby to deceive the world, and make them beleeve they were a reforming them-felves and the Church, out of their zeal to Gods glory, when they alwayes staid in their old Idols Temple, while it were ready to fall on their heads, and then built themfelves another of the fame materials, oncly painted over with fome other colours: And this ye shall finde to be the center of all Synodical Reformations to this very day; never countenancing nor infering more of the power of godlinels in any, where they could suppress it, then what would ferve them for a ftalking horfe, to deftroy their diffenting Brethren by. And as they have fought the exaltation of their own glory, the eftablish-ment of their own power, and the manifeltation of their own humane wifdom and learning in all their undertakings, and have delpifed, the wildom, power, and glory of God in his people, becaufe God bath bid that treafure in earthen veffet, his people, becaule to a nath math hat treafure in earthen vellels, 2 Cor. 4. 7. becaule it is the good pleafure of the Father to hide thole things from the wife, and prudent, and reveal them unto bakes, Adath. 11. 25. becaule not many wife, not many mighty, not many noble are called, but God hath chosen the foolifs things of the World, to confound the wife, 1 Cor. 1. 27. Therefore hath God likewife refuged them, and hath owner the owner was the God likewife refufed them, and hath given them up to the pride, and deceit of their own heart : Therefore hath God Pride, and deceit of their own heart : Therefore hath God pronounced a wo against them, I saids 30.1. Wo to the rebelli-out children, that take counfel, but not of me, that cover with a covering, but not of my firit : So in the 29. of I saids 13. Wherefore the Lord said, Forafmuch as this people draw new me with their month, and with their lips do honor me, but have re-moved their heart for from me, and their far toward me is tanght by the precepts of men : Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder : the wijdom of their Wije men Ball perifs, and the moderflunding of their prudent men fall be bid. Is not the fin and punifihment of the Prince of Tyre met in our days ? Ezeand punifhment of the Prince of Tyre met in our days ? Ezekiel 28. Is it not visibly discovered to us, that our learned Wife men, fuch as have endeavoured to confine all the true knowledge of God, and the myfteries of his Kingdom to their

(10) tence of Holy War, to the deftroying and ruinating many thousands of good Christians: the whole Hiltories of Chris ftendom being but a brief ftory of the bloody wicked barbarous practifes of thefe blood-thirfty Clergy-men; there would be no end if I fhould come to particulars, whole Volumns not containing them. But thou mayeft object and fay, We know the Romith-Clergy are bloody deceivers, cruel perfecuters of good Christians : We have heard often of the Spanish Inquisition, and the bloody massacre in France, Sec. But what is this to us ? we have had a Learned, Pious Clergy in England for many yeers. Let me intreat thee to confider a little, what pious men they have been ; where fhall we begin ? in Henry the eights time, or in Queen Maries dayes? For till those dayes they were all as Romith as the other are now. Let me intreat thee to perufe well the Chronicles of England, Scotland, and Ireland, Mafter Fox his Books of the Acts and Monuments of the Church, his Hiftory of Martyrs; and when thou halt done, then tell me, whether the Clergy of E_{ngland} hath not been more wicked, bloody, and cruel, then all the Clergy of Chriftendom befides : How many thousands of precious Chriftians have had their blood fpilt, and been put to cruel torments, fuch as ye hardly read of in any other Rory by our cruel bloody English Clergy-men? And this is chiefly obfervable in them, wherein they have exceeded all others, That they have not onely been as Popifh, superfitious, and cruel, as others in other Kingdoms, when the ftream hath ran that way; but that they were never true to their own principles, wherein they have been al wayes a fhame to their cloth; for as their Popifh Superflition and Idolatry, hath declared them to be not Chriftians, but Ant chriftians : fo their turning like the weather-cock, with all windes, hath declared them unworthy cowardly people, as they are meet patural men. Thus ye shall finde them in Henry the eights dayes, when the Kingdom was under the height of Popery, they were all cruel Papifts ; when the King denied the Popes fupremacy, and went about to demolifh the Abbeys, and Monasteries, which they all knew was not out of any pions

ς.

(9)

their learned capacities have ever been our deceivers, and feducers : Such as have been our leaders into all manner of Superfition and Idolatry ; may we not well fay with the Apolle, Where is the wife, where is the foribe, where is the difpater of this world ? bath not God made foolifb the wildom of this world? I Cor. 1 20. Doth it not appear, That Chrift is made b) God alone mato us wifdow ? I Cor. I. 30 Have not those which have called themselves the Reverend Clergy, the Learncd Tribe of Levi, the Bifhops, Paftors, and Minifters of Chrifts Church, been for above a thousand yeers, to the begining of this Parliament, the great deceivers, the grand Secta-ries, the chief fowers of Sedition, the very Throne and Body of Antichrift, and the proudeft enemies to the Church of God ?

Let us leave England a little, and observe the greatest pars of the World, called Chriftendom, as Italy, Spain, France, Germany, G.c. and do they not at this very day, spain, react, of the very darknets of Popery, making it their very Religion to maintain the Popes fupremacy, the authority of the Church, and a few idolatrous Superfititions Ceremonies; and are other-wayes altogether as ignorant of the knowledge of Jefus Chrift, as the very Heathens ? And who are the Leaders of thefe people in their ignorant fuperfition, and idolatry ? Is it not the Clergy, the Learned, the Univerfity men? Is it not they which are their Popes, Cardinals, Jefvites, Fryers, Monks, & ? Is it not they which hath broacht, and imposed all those damnable Herefics, and Errors, now in the Church of Rome ? And have they not to fill up the measure of their iniquities, caufed to be prefented, and put to death many thoulands of Christians, for not beleving, and receiving their damable Superfittions Errors? Nay further, hath it not been they which throughout all Christendom for thefe many ages, have been the chief and onely contrivers, and plot ers of all the bloody barbarous plots, wicked infurrections, and traiterous rebellions, againft Kings and Kingdoms? Hath it not been their conflant practike to flir up Nation againft Nation, and Kingdom againft Kingdom, under pre-1. 2

(11)

ical he had for Reformation, but out of wrath, pride, and covercoufnes; yet how did they all fide with him, except the Cerdinal, and the poor Fryers, and Monks, that were all un-done, and beggered by it? Then in the dayrs of Edward the fixt, by reafon of the Kings pious difpoli ion, though young, they feared a turn, and prefently a great part of them fell a Preaching against fome particular points of Popery; and fuch as defended them, did as if they had not greatly cared what Religion they were on : but in the mean time, the Lord Protector, with feveral others, were refolved to reform the Church; and prefently abolifhed the Mafs with moft of the Popifh Service, and caufed the Common-Prayer Book to be read in English to the people; and prefently all the Clergy were zealous Protestants, great Common-Prayer Book men, except fome four or five of their chief Bilnops, as Gardiner, Bonner, Touftal, and Day ; and about three or four yeers after, at the molt, when Queen Mary was made Queen of England, they prefently all turned about again , except fuch another number, as Cranmer, Rogers, Hooper, Ferrer, Ridley, and La-timer, and grew more cruch throughout the whole Kingdom against the poor Saints then ever they were ; Bonner being then Bilhop of London , did drive the very fame trade Malter Edwards is about now ; for if ye obferve it, the first officer Antichrist entertains when he is begining a new defigne, is a good Scout-maîter General, to keep a correspondency with all the reft of the wicked Clergy spred abroad over the Kingdom, as ye may fee by those many wicked Letters, and accu-fations, which daily he received from all parts of the Kingdom, againft one poor man or other; fo that friends durft not talk together for fear fome words fhould flip, and Bonner hould come to hear of it, which was the bloodieft minded man that is upon record, for perfecuting the poor Saints, and inventing punishment for them , or I hope we ever shall hear of, if God keep but Master Edwards and his ungrateful bloody faction out of authority : And in this rage did thole wolves continue devouring the poor fheep of Chrift all the dayes of Queen Mary ; and how many thoulands of good Christians were deftroyed and banifhed by them, would make C1 a Jews

Jews heart bleed to confider off ; and all those fuffered by them as evil doers, as Heretikes and Schifmatikes ; and themfelves then, as they do now, affumed the name of Christs Minifters, and Ambaffadors : Then after Queen Mary was dead, and Queen Elizabeth fwayed the Scepter, in fix moneths the whole tribe of them , except fome few of their Bifhops which had gotten moncy enough to live upon any where, and fo did not care much for their trade, turned quite about again, and all turned Proteftants : in which fhape, and under which vilage, they have continued to the beginning of this Parliament ; who then prefently difcovered to the whole Kingdom, that they had been as deceitful, and as crucl in this thape, as ever they had been in the former ; that they had onely got on fheeps clothing, but were all inwardly ravening wolves : they had got a trick to call all their Antichriftian practifes, and Popifh ceremonies, the Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England; and all their Antichriftian proud Prelates, with the reft of their superfittious dumb Priefts must be called the Bishops Stewards, and Ministers of Jefus Chrift; and all the true worthippers of God in the Kingdom, they were all feattered abroad, filenced, and perfecuted under the name of Heretikes, and Schifmatikes, perfectived under the hand of Fictures, and Schuldharnes, or. Every day growing worfe then other, bringing in fome new invented Popific ceremony or other, to the end they might have further advantage against fuch as could not fubmit to them: fure it will be needless for me to give you any particulars of their infolent proud wicked carriage in our times; it mult needs be frefh in your memory; their incroachments upon the Givil power; their opprefions by their wicked Courts in all parts of this Kingdom; their fuperfittion and idolarry, which they were every day inventing and bringing into the Church; their infolency and pride in fetting them-lelvesap with, if not above the Nobility of the Kingdom; their wicked and damnable plots, tending to the ruine of both Church and State ; doth not all the blood, both of England, and Ireland frand upon the frone of these bloody men? have not they been the great fomenters of this bloody war among SW: - - ŝ.

(13)

amongst us, by stirting up the pirits of wicked cruel men, against the poor Saints of God, in the three Kingdoms ; and was there ever any wicked plot discovered, either against Church or State, but these men have had agreat hand in it, if not the chief contrivers of it ? If a Deputy of Ireland be in fault, ye may be fure of an Archbishop of Canterbury : How did they flock to the Kings party at the beginning of this war, that in fome Garrifons, as Oxford, Newark, York, and feveral others, there were whole Troops and Companies of black-coats? and where ever the greateft flocks of these learned Deceivers were refident, there were the people most dif. steefed to the Parliament ; as witness the Universities and Cathedrals, which appeared to be the very nefts and cages of unclean birds : If the Parljament fhould have forborne to have given them the tenth of the Kingdom, till fuch time as the tenth of the Clergy had been of their fides, the Ordinance tenth of the Clergy has been or their lides, the Oraninee for Tithes might yet have been unpaft. If I fhould go on to particulars, of their Malignant ipeeches and actions, which they have fpoken, and done against the Parliament; and their proceedings fince this war begun, you would not have the patience to read them; of their villifying the Parliament and all that adhered to them, under the names of Rebels and Trautore, forgunate the particulation of robbins Traytors; frequently charging them of facriledge and robbing the Church of her ancient Rites and Ceremonies; extolling the Book of Common prayer, calling it the Divine Service of God, thereby to render the Parliament odious for taking away fuch holy things; with abundance more of this nature fo that all thefe things well confidered and laid together, I wonder who will appear the great Sectaries, the grand Heretikes, the factious Fellows, the fowers of Sedition, and deltroyers of Religion in the Kingdom? whether the Laity or the Clergy? and who we have now most caufe to Qand in fear of ? whether those which are now discovering the fuperflitious blindnefs, and wicked practifes of the Clergy, or the Clergy themfelves ? which are driving on their old defignes in a new fhape, that are building a new Babelout of the old rubbilh, that are giving that great skarlet whore, a C 3 new

(14) new drefs, thereby to make the world once more wonder after her, that they may once more hear that voice, Great is Diana of the Ephefianz; butlet me perfwade thee not to fear them, neither it is enough for their fervants, their vaffals, fuch as ftand and fall with them, to live in fear of them : But if thou be if one of those which follow the Lumb, where foever h goe b, Rev. 14 4. that art willing to carry the crofs of Chrift, as well as wear his Crown, that art willing to fuff t with him, as well as raign in the day of their great calamity, W how they fall drink the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his Indignation, and Ball be tormented with fire and brimftone, in the prefence of the holy angels, and of the Lamb, Revel. 14. 10. Then Balt thou fand with the Lamb upon mount Sion, verle the firft. Then thalt thou fing a new Jong before the throne, Verle 7. Then shall you fing Aletnia, falvation, bonor, and power, unto the Lord our God; for true and rightcous are his judgements, for he hath judged the great where, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath averaged the blood of his fervants at her hand, Revel. 19. 1, 2. Therefore be not now at all troubled, when thou feelt the day begin to grow dark; it is but a cloud that is arising, it will be no more night with the Church; if they have a dark hour, the fun will thine through the cloud; For lo, the winter is paft, the fun will thine through the cloud; For lo, the winter is paft, the rain is over-gone, the flowers begin to appear on the earth, Cant. 2. 11. It is now foring-time with the Church, and though there may be many a cold blaft, and flormy flowre, though there may be many a constraint, and normy intowne, yet they are rather to be defired then feared. They will canfe the fig-tree to put forth ber green figs, and the vine with the tender grape to give a good /mell, Cant. 2, 13. What though Truth be yet called Error, and Light darknefs, the Saints and faithful fervants of God, Schiffmatikes, and Heretikes? &c. let not this trouble there, is is no rour thing thet hash befolg these this trouble thee; it is no new thing that hath befaln thee, they never were called by other names yer by this generation of men, called Clergy ; and Paul was not alhamed to confels to Felix, that after the way they call Herefie, he worthiped the God of his Fathers; and if thou be'll alhamed to confels that now, thou mayelt come to be ashamed of Chrift, and Truth, and fo deny both ; Therefore do not thou minde fo much what men cry up for truth, and tread down for error; for all is not error that is voted fo : It hath been the lot of truth in most counfels, if not in all, to have the fewelt voices; and thou mayeft be fore, they themfelves that put truth upon vote, are not themfelves fatisfied what truth is, till they have done voting : But if they were the fons of truth, or had any love to, or high efteem of truth; if they had ever tafted of that word of truth and righteoufnefs ; it they had ever received the truth in the love of it, it would be more precious to them, then to be ventured at one ftake :

But this doth fully declare to us they hold the truth in unrighteoufnefs, Romans 1, 18. Thefe are fuch as Ifaiab fpeaketh off, Ifaiab 48. 1. Which are called by the name of Ifrael, and are come forth out of the waters of Indah, which fivear by the name of the Lord, and make mention of the God of Ifrael, but not in truth nor in righteon frefs. Thefe men never followed Chrift for the love of Truth; it is the loaves more then the miracles that they minde. Thefe Simon Magne's which have purchafed their Apoftlechips by their money, love their wages better then they do their work: The first thing they minde, is how to get a Gofpel-maintenance, and then they never fear a Gofpel-Ministery; they know by ex-perience, the former begets the latter. Thele are not of the race of that true Shepherd, for his work was to fave menz lives, Luke 9.56. But the bulinefs of thefe hath been to de-ftroy mens lives : He came to lay down his life for the fleep, John 10, 15. Thefe come to take away the lives of the fheep, John 10.10. His work was to feed the flock, John 10.9. These take the fleece, and flarve the flock, Ezekiel 34. 2. His difpolition and expression to the flock, are full of love und tender bowels, He fall feed bis flock like a foepberd, he foall gather the Lambs in bis arms, and carry them in his bofom, and fall gently lead those that are with young, Ifaiah 40.11. But these like those wicked cruel fhepherds, are on the contrary nature. The difeafed have you not firengthued, neither have you healed that which was fick, neither have you bound up that which was broken,

(16) broken, neisher have yon bronghe again that which was driven away, neither have you fought that which was loft but with force and with crucity have you ruled them, Ezek. 34. 4. Thefe are of those theeves Chrift speaks off , John 10. 10. that come not but for to fteal, to kill and deftroy: but I am come that you might have life, faith Chrift, and that you might have it more abundantly. Thefe are not onely of those hirelings, whole own the fheep are not, which onely flee when the wolf comes, and leaves the fheep to the wolf, febr 10, 12, but thefe are rather those wolves which Chrift forewarned the Church of, Matt. 7. 15. Thefe are of that fort Paul prophefieth of, Alls 20. 29. For I know that after my departure, that gricuous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock : These may be fitly compared to ferufalems talle prophets and wicked prietts, Ezek, 22. 25, 26. There is a confpiracy of her Prophets in the midjt thereof like a roaring lion, ravening the prey : they have devoured fouls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many Widows in the midf thereof: Her Pelefs have violated my law, and have prophaned my holy things ; they have put no difference between the holy and prophane, neisber have they forwed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my Sab-baths, and I am prophaned among them. Her Princes in the mideft thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to field blood, and deftroy fouls, to get diffonest gain. And her prophete have daubed them with untempered morter, feeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, faying, Thus faith the Lord, when the Lord hath not foken. If there were but fuch a noble fpirit in thee, as those Bearcans had, All, 17. 11. to fearch the Scriptures daily , whether those things be true or no that men hold forth to thee, how foon would the vanity and fimpleness of these learned deceivers be difcovered to thee ? If thou wouldeft but take the Apofiles for an example, not to have regard to the words which mans wildons teacheth, but which the holy Ghoft teacheth, comparing firitual things with firitual, I Cor.2.13. If thou wouldet not beleeve every firit, but try the firits whether they be of Gedor no, becamfe many false prophets are gone one into the start of the start of the world, I John 4. I. How would light break forth to thee. and darknels, flee away ? but we have been more fearful to feruple or queftion the teftimony of men, and their fubtile intricate interpretations of the Scripture, then we have been to quiftion the teltimony of God himfelf, and the plain fay-ings of the fpirit in the Scripture; and the Laws and Ordinances which these men have procured, and caused to be establifh.d against Herefie and falle Doctrine, did never run in the defence of the Scripture, as it ftands pen'd by the Spirit of God, but as it were interpreted by them (not thus) If any manihall declate or hold forth any doctrine or opinion contrary to the Scripture, or contrary to the form of found words delivered by Chrift and his Apoltles : (but thus) by the Papilts, If any man fhall hold forth any doctrine or opinion contrary to the holy Catholike Church, or fhall deny the fupremacy or infallibility of our holy Father the Pope, e. And among the Protestants thus, If any man shall hold forth any doctrine or opinion contrary to the prefent gov/rnment dtablished, or contrary to the doctrine or articles of Faith, received by the Church, ere. he fhall be proceeded againft as an Heretike, $\mathcal{G}_{\mathcal{C}_{e}}$ and accordingly, If any have been accuded of Herefie or Schifan, $\mathcal{G}_{\mathcal{C}_{e}}$ why they have been proved Here-tikes, $\mathcal{G}_{\mathcal{C}_{e}}$ by those Laws and Ordinances, and not by the Scripture, nor by Chrifts precepts and practice, as they fland upon record from his mouth ; neither will it avail the accused to plead in his defence any teltimony from Scripture, to maintain the lawfulnefs of his prectice; but his advertiries will cry out, we have a law, & by our law he ought to die; and thus hat thefe men, like those wicked Pharifees Chrift proves, Matth, 15. 6. made the Scripture, and Law of God of none effect by their own traditions; they have been alwayes striving, and contending with Kings and Parliaments for Laws and Ordinances, protending them spinft Herefie and Schifty, and hath even named the edge of them spinft the setty power of godithefs : this being their very way and means.

(17)

(16) broken, neisher have yon bronghe again that which was driven away, neither have you fought that which was loft but with force and with crucity have you ruled them, Ezek. 34. 4. Thefe are of those theeves Chrift speaks off , John 10. 10. that come not but for to fteal, to kill and deftroy: but I am come that you might have life, faith Chrift, and that you might have it more abundantly. Thefe are not onely of those hirelings, whole own the fheep are not, which onely flee when the wolf comes, and leaves the fheep to the wolf, febr 10, 12, but thefe are rather those wolves which Chrift forewarned the Church of, Matt. 7. 15. Thefe are of that fort Paul prophefieth of, Alls 20. 29. For I know that after my departure, that gricuous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock : These may be fitly compared to ferufalems talle prophets and wicked prietts, Ezek, 22. 25, 26. There is a confpiracy of her Prophets in the midjt thereof like a roaring lion, ravening the prey : they have devoured fouls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many Widows in the midf thereof: Her Pelefs have violated my law, and have prophaned my holy things ; they have put no difference between the holy and prophane, neisber have they forwed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my Sab-baths, and I am prophaned among them. Her Princes in the mideft thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to field blood, and deftroy fouls, to get diffonest gain. And her prophete have daubed them with untempered morter, feeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, faying, Thus faith the Lord, when the Lord hath not foken. If there were but fuch a noble fpirit in thee, as those Bearcans had, All, 17. 11. to fearch the Scriptures daily , whether those things be true or no that men hold forth to thee, how foon would the vanity and fimpleness of these learned deceivers be difcovered to thee ? If thou wouldeft but take the Apofiles for an example, not to have regard to the words which mans wildons teacheth, but which the holy Ghoft teacheth, comparing firitual things with firitual, I Cor.2.13. If thou wouldet not beleeve every firit, but try the firits whether they be of Gedor no, becamfe many false prophets are gone one into the start of the start of the world, I John 4. I. How would light break forth to thee. and darknels, flee away ? but we have been more fearful to feruple or queftion the teftimony of men, and their fubtile intricate interpretations of the Scripture, then we have been to quiftion the teltimony of God himfelf, and the plain fay-ings of the fpirit in the Scripture; and the Laws and Ordinances which these men have procured, and caused to be establifh.d against Herefie and falle Doctrine, did never run in the defence of the Scripture, as it ftands pen'd by the Spirit of God, but as it were interpreted by them (not thus) If any manihall declate or hold forth any doctrine or opinion contrary to the Scripture, or contrary to the form of found words delivered by Chrift and his Apoltles : (but thus) by the Papilts, If any man fhall hold forth any doctrine or opinion contrary to the holy Catholike Church, or fhall deny the fupremacy or infallibility of our holy Father the Pope, e. And among the Protestants thus, If any man shall hold forth any doctrine or opinion contrary to the prefent gov/rnment dtablished, or contrary to the doctrine or articles of Faith, received by the Church, ere. he fhall be proceeded againft as an Heretike, $\mathcal{G}_{\mathcal{C}_{e}}$ and accordingly, If any have been accuded of Herefie or Schifan, $\mathcal{G}_{\mathcal{C}_{e}}$ why they have been proved Here-tikes, $\mathcal{G}_{\mathcal{C}_{e}}$ by those Laws and Ordinances, and not by the Scripture, nor by Chrifts precepts and practice, as they fland upon record from his mouth ; neither will it avail the accused to plead in his defence any teltimony from Scripture, to maintain the lawfulnefs of his prectice; but his advertiries will cry out, we have a law, & by our law he ought to die; and thus hat thefe men, like those wicked Pharifees Chrift proves, Matth, 15. 6. made the Scripture, and Law of God of none effect by their own traditions; they have been alwayes striving, and contending with Kings and Parliaments for Laws and Ordinances, protending them spinft Herefie and Schifty, and hath even named the edge of them spinft the setty power of godithefs : this being their very way and means.

(17)

(18)

means, whereby they have deftroyed to many good Chriftians, as you fee they have done in all ages ; fo that they have nor been fatisfied to perfecute and deftroy good people themfelves, but have hereby imbrued the hands of Emperors, Kings, and Parliaments, in the blood of many millions of Oods people, to the minating of themfelves and their Kingdome - befide to the ruinating of themfelves and their Kingdoms ; befides the loud cry of blood to God for vengeance against them, which he will furely require at their hands ; and when he had opened the fifth feal, I faw under the altar, the fouls of them that were flain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they beld; and they cryed with a loud voice, faying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and average our blood on them that davellon the earth ? Revel 9.10. And I heard the angel of the waters, fay, Thon art righteom, O Lord, which art are anges of the waters, fay, Thon art righteom, O Lord, which art, and walf, and Ball be, because thou half judged us; for they have ford the blood of Saints and Prophets, and thou half given them blood to drink; for they are worthy, Revel, 16.5, 6. When the lord that are are worthy, Revel, 16.5, 6. When the Lord fhall once come to make inquifition for blood, it is not a pretence of building up Sion, and cltablishing the peace of furnfalem that shall fattsfie his jultice; no, he will avenge it fernjatem that thall fatisfie his jultice; no, he will avenge it on all hands. Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of she howfe of faceb, and princes of the houfe of lively, that abbor judgements and pervert all equity. They build up Sim With blood, and firm falem with iniquity. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the Priefs thereof teach for hire, and the Prophets thereof divine fir money; yet will they lean upon the Lord, and fay, Is not the Lord among as ? none evil can come upon us. Therefore foul Sion for your fake be plowed as a field, and fernfalem fall become beaps, and the mountain of the banke. as the high balasses fire forefly. Just jace be pieved as a piela, and fernjatem joan become ways, and the mountain of the bonje, as the high places of the foreft, Mich 3.10,11,12. And do but compare the practice of these men, to the practice of Christ and his Apolles, and free what little spreement there is betwixt them , and then chufe whether thou wilt ferve God or Mammon ; for no man can ferve both, Marth.6.24. Ye fhall finde Chrift himfelf, which was not onely the great Prophet and Teacher of his Church, 181

(19) Att 3. 33, 24. but like wide their great King and Law giver, Jaida 33. 32. one that hath all the power of heaven and earth committed to him, and yet did he never use any arbitrary power over, or in the Church ; but faith he , All things that I have heard of my Facher , I have made known unto you, John 15. 15. It was his Fathers bufinefs, not his own, that he came to do, Luke 2.49. John 4 37. & 19.4. His Fathers will, not his own, that he came to fulfil, John 5.30. Mark 14.36. And in his Fathers name, not his own, did he eo all that he did, John 5.43. & 17 6,26. And fo the Apolles which were chofen and ordained by Chrift himfelf, to the work of the Ministery, which had in them an infalliable spirit to guide them , and yet you never finde them (peaking or doing any them, and yet you never more them speaking or doing any thing is their own name, or in the name, or authority of any other, but Chrift himfelf, producing his precepts and pra-dices for all their words and actions, That which we have feen and beard, declare we write you, I John I. 3. fo Acts 4.20. For we cannot but fleak the things which we have feen and beard (they do not fay the things which we have confidered and and organized in and in a find action do for a find and work at and precedent we may be and in a find action of the second work at the second and the second and the second and the second and acteed works at a second in the find of the second work at and acteed works at the second second second works at the second second second second second second second second and acteed works at the second and agreed upon.)So ye read in the first of the Acts and verfe the fecond, That Christ by the holy Ghoft had given commandment to the Apostles, whom he had chosen ; and in obedience to those commands of Chrift, did they act, and do all which they did. Commandes or Chinic, did tary act, and do as which tary did This was the doctrine Peter preached, Afts 10. 43. And he commanded us to preach unito the people, and to reflifie, that it was be which was ordained of God, to be judge of, quick and dead; and when Peter and John were commanded to preach no. and when reser and some were commanded to preach no more in this name, Alts 4.19. Peter and John an/wered, and faid unto shem, Whether it be right in the fight of God, to bear ken unto you, more then unto God, judge yr. And as they did not de-cline the preaching in the name never the more for being commanded to the contrary ; fo would they not have preach ed it ever the lefs or more, for being commanded to do it by any but Chrift, who had alone power to inable them to shey his commands: therefore faith David, 1 will run the way of DI

(20)

thy commandments, when thou shalt inlarge my hears, Pfal. 119. 32. If men could inlarge hearts, as well as give commands, there might be fome hopes of their forcing to believe in Chrift, and to walk in the way of his commandments. But in vain do ye worship me, faith Christ, teaching for dottrine the commandments of men, Matth. 15. 9. Though the commandments which those Pharifees take for doctrine, were commandments of men, to worthip the true God, and that after the most strictest manner , according to the Law of Mofes, as they judged, Act 26. 5. and yet this was then vain worthip, how comes it now to be orthodox ? and fo you ford